SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of Three (3) years on Count One.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
- If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
5. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
6. You will notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
7. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, distribute or administer any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
8. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
9. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
10. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
11. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
12. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.
13. You will not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a substance abuse treatment program, which may include drug testing, breathalyzer testing, detoxification service, inpatient or outpatient treatment, as approved and directed by the Probation office.
 2. The defendant shall participate in an educational/vocational skills training program, as approved and directed by the Probation office.
 3. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.
 4. Pursuant to 42 USC14135a, for all felony offenses, the defendant shall submit to the collection and use of DNA identification information while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office.
- The defendant has the right to appeal the sentence imposed by this Court. If the defendant chooses to appeal, the defendant must do so within 10 days after the Court has entered judgment in this case. If the defendant is unable to afford the cost of an appeal, the defendant may request permission from the Court to file an appeal in forma pauperis- that is without any cost to him.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count One (1), which shall be due immediately and shall be paid to the Clerk of the Court for the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia.

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the Court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3572(d)(3) and 3664(k), the defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution. As set out in 18 U.S.C. § 3664(n), if the defendant receives substantial resources from any source, including inheritance, settlement, or other judgment, during the period of incarceration, the defendant shall apply the value of such resources to any restitution or fine still owed.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 Constitution Ave., N.W., Rm. 1825, Washington, D.C. 20001, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.
